

Template information

The red line indicates the limit of the visible area once the cup is made. Anything beyond it will not be visible.